Quotes: Martin Luther King

"I still have a dream, a dream deeply rooted in the American dream - one day this nation will rise up and live up to its creed, "We hold these truths to be self evident: that all men are created equal." I have a dream..."

"I look to a day when people will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character"

"Nothing in all the world is more dangerous than sincere ignorance and conscientious stupidity"

"People fail to get along because they fear each other: they fear each other because they don't know each other: they don't know each other because they have not communicate with each other"
